A Gift In-Kind donation is defined as tangible property that can be touched, handled, or moved by an individual. Donated goods and services are recorded for gift recognition based on the Fair Market Value (FMV) as supplied by the donor. Per IRS rules any Gift-In-Kind valued at $5,000 or more must be accompanied by an appraisal. Acknowledgment letters will be sent from Resource Development with the description of the donated item. PACE treats all information as privileged and confidential unless otherwise stated. Note: Donors are encouraged to seek professional tax advice for personal income tax questions and assistance.
